

HOME HAPPENINGS

—Leaves are beginning to take on bright colors.

—Not many hickorynuts, walnuts or butternuts in the woods this fall.

—Hunters in this neighborhood have killed very few squirrels so far this season.

—A son was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kimmel, who reside one mile west of the village.

—Harry Flavel has sold his interest in the Canfield Auto & Repair Co. to other members of the firm and retired.

—It seems to be the notion of a lot of people that they were placed on earth to proclaim the shortcomings of the other fellow.

—Corn cutting is under way in this neighborhood and generally speaking the crop is good, no damage worth mentioning having been done by frost.

—Buckwheat cutting is on. Most of the wheat and oats have been threshed and some corn is in shock. Frost has done little damage in this neighborhood.

—P. P. Lynn, who was engaged in the automobile transfer business in the past two years, running between Canfield and Youngstown, sold his car and business to Harry Hiner.

—A Ford touring car and a racing car collided on the road half a mile north of town last Saturday night and both machines were considerably damaged. No one was injured.

—Many people from this section will attend the dedication of the McKinley national memorial building in Niles next week Friday. Great preparations are being made for the event.

—Work is progressing nicely in the county normal school under the direction of Miss Mary Hubbell. It is expected the attendance will considerably increase during the next few weeks.

—The road leading west from the borough limits to Chidester's Corners, closed several weeks while being repaired, is nearly completed and will be thrown open to the public Saturday afternoon.

—Canfield Auxiliary of the Red Cross met to sew in the Presbyterian church basement next Wednesday afternoon and it is desired that as many ladies as possible whether members or not, be present.

—The Martins have deserted the bird houses in the park, leaving the English sparrows the sole occupants. But next spring when the Martins return they will take their rights and the little Brits will be forced to vacate.

—Next Tuesday evening a reception will be tendered Rev. W. P. Hollister at the Presbyterian church at which time Mr. Hollister will be installed as pastor. It is desired that all members and supporters of the church be present.

—The large flag that has floated from the big steel pole in the public square since it was unfurled on Memorial Day is on its way, the lower stripes becoming tattered through constant fluttering in the breeze. Before many weeks a new flag will be necessary.

—Tell your merchants that you can buy goods a great deal cheaper in some other town and charge them with extortion. If a stranger comes to your town tell him everything is overdone and predict a general crash in the near future. It is these things that make a town grow.

—Late trains have been the rule this week on the Niles & Lisbon branch of the Erie, much to the annoyance of the traveling public and those who must depend on the trains for mail service. Monday morning the train from the south was four hours late reaching Canfield.

—A woman driving a big automobile owned in Akron attempted to make the turn at Herbert's Corners last Sunday afternoon while running at high speed with the result that the car went into a ditch and the right front wheel worked. The occupants of the car escaped injury.

—Owen Odun of Coates, N. C., bought and shipped from Canfield last Friday nine high grade Jersey calves from 3 to 11 months old for which he paid an average price of $58. He bought three from R. J. Neff, three from C. H. Miller, two from Mrs. Cora Frederick and one from John Riley.

—Coy Brothers, who have the contract to macadamize the road between Chidester's Corners and the Ellsworth township line, expect to complete the road they are now building in Ellsworth township in about two weeks and will then start grading the Canfield-Ellsworth road, but nothing beyond grading can be hoped for this year.

—Mark H. Liddle, cashier of the Farmers' National bank, has been appointed township committeeman to look after subscriptions to the new Liberty Loan, the campaign for which opens the first of next week. Every man, woman and child in the township will be asked to subscribe for the bonds, than which no better or safer investment can be made.

—Rev. John W. Moore of Alliance, who preached most of the past year in the Canfield Methodist church, and Miss Lydia Gray, his housekeeper, were united in marriage last week, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. J. N. Moore of Newport, the first for him since entering the entering the ministry. The father since officiated at his son's wedding.

—A story has been in circulation that an attempt was made the other night to hold up Dr. A. B. Dethchen near the Canfield-Boardman township line. The fact is the doctor was driving home in his car and noticed an auto jack standing up in the center of the road, which may have been a bait to have him stop to pick it up, but he saw no men hiding at the side of the road as the story had it. The jack may have fallen from a passing machine, landing upright, or it may have been placed as it was by designing men.

—One of the finest orchards in this section is on the John Dells farm on the Salem road. Many of the trees are bending low under their heavy burden of fruit, which is not the case with trees in numerous orchards, this seeming to be an off year for apples. Last year the orchard yielded close to a thousand bushels of apples, mostly Baldwins, which found a ready market. This year the crop will probably be above 500 bushels, but the difference in price between this year and last will likely make the revenue this year greater than last year.

—Sid Brooke of Ellsworth went to Missouri a week or two ago and purchased 2200 sheep, or eleven car loads, which will be shipped to this county.

—Youngstown people unable to secure coal in the home market are purchasing large quantities of Canfield dealers who keep teams and trucks on the road every day.

—Dr. F. B. Sawvel of Greenville, Pa., formerly of Canfield, was called to Harrison county the latter part of last week by the death of his mother whose age was more than 90 years.

—The Stitches Club had an enjoyable meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. A. Manchester in Dublin. The hostesses were Mesdames Manchester, H. J. Beardsley, C. H. Hine and A. K. Osborn.

—Adam Hartenstein, aged 83, died Tuesday at the county infirmary. He was a native of Germany and lived in Youngstown before going to the infirmary. Funeral services were held Thursday with burial in Oak Hill cemetery.

—The Postoffice Department is advertising for bids to carry mail between Canfield and Youngstown. Two schedules are indicated, one providing for six round trips a week and the other for twelve. Only first and second class matter are to be handled which should make the contract the most desirable one. Under the terms of the contract service is to begin Nov. 1. Specifications are posted in the lobby of the Canfield postoffice.

—At the first reunion of the Schaefer family held last Saturday on the Canfield fair grounds more than sixty people were present and a most enjoyable time was had. Officers for the ensuing year are John Schaefer of Calla president, Frank Schaefer of Pittsburgh vice president, Mrs. Chas. Schaefer of Greenford secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Sadie McCartney of Canfield historian. The reunion next fall will be held in Southern park, south of Boardman.

—Mayor J. B. Jones has received a letter from Attorney General Joseph McGhee advising him that plans have been perfected whereby every resident of Ohio will secure the necessary supply of coal. A coal dictator will be appointed for the state; he will appoint an assistant in every county and town who will ascertain the quantity of coal needed and the coal must be furnished by operators. The retail price of coal will be fixed within two weeks. Should conditions require it the mayor is to call upon the attorney general who will aim to see that coal is forthcoming.

—In writing to give his Camp Sherman address, Vance A. Cronk, one of the Canfield boys who left last Friday morning for the training camp, among other things says: "We arrived here safely after being on the train about 11 hours. The members of the party from Canfield have all been separated except Perry Cook, Clyde Schrum and myself, who have been assigned to the same company, although I expect to be transferred to the Engineer's Corps very shortly. We are all feeling fine and like it very well although we have sore shoulders after being given a 'shot' for typhoid; have five more 'shots' to take, and they say each succeeding one gets worse. We have all been vaccinated and passed the physical examination."

—More men wanted from District No. 4. District No. 4 has certified the names of 41 additional men to the district draft board at Canton as available for military service. Of this number, 31 were of men whose claims for exemption were denied and ten were of men added to the list of those who claimed no exemptions. The list follows:

Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 21.
Dear Parents:—I received your letter of the 17th. It is the only letter from home so far but the mail is all balled up down here and get some of our mail 4 to 6 days late when it should only take two days. I do not think we are going to France for awhile, at least not until spring. The grub is good, fine in fact. We are restaking our tents, making them in a straight line and grading our street. I was told this morning that I was to be made chief mechanic. I do not know what the pay is or at what time I will get it, probably not for a month at least as we have to get the balance of our mail first. Well as the bugle blows for dinner I will tell you what time. With love to all I remain,
Your son,
LESTER L. COX.

MRS. BURGER STRICKEN
Mrs. Grace Burger, widow of Rev. I. N. Burger, was stricken for the second time with paralysis Thursday afternoon at her home on Court street and her condition is regarded serious.

MARY A. MARTIN DEAD

(Portland Oregonian)
Mary A. Wilson Martin was born near Canfield in Mahoning county, Ohio, August 14, 1844; died at her daughter's home in Portland, Oregon, Sept. 5, 1917, aged 73 years and 21 days.

She was united in marriage to James Martin, Feb. 4, 1869, in Canfield, Ohio. Soon thereafter they started on their long journey to Benton county, Oregon, by way of the Isthmus of Panama. They arrived in San Francisco, March 4. There they took passage on another steamer for Portland, Oregon, and from there they came up the Willamette by steamboat, arriving in Corvallis, March 17, 1869. The remainder of the journey to Irish Bend was made in a wagon. Carriages and buggies were unknown here then.

She leaves two children, Mrs. Ida Klingensmith of Portland, Oregon and John L. Martin of Irish Bend and three grandchildren, Mildred Nelson, James Klingensmith, and Chester Martin, to mourn their sad loss. Her husband, the late James Martin, died October 30, 1907.

She is the last of a family of seven. With her going, a generation has passed away. Early in life she united with the Episcopal church and remained a faithful member of the same till about 16 years ago, when she united with the Methodist church of McFarland Chapel. She loved the most desirable one. Under the terms of the contract service is to begin Nov. 1. Specifications are posted in the lobby of the Canfield postoffice.

At the first reunion of the Schaefer family held last Saturday on the Canfield fair grounds more than sixty people were present and a most enjoyable time was had.
